SECTION 55. Pursuant to the Pennsylvania Non-Profit Corporation Law of 1988 as amended, any person who shall be or who has been involved in or who has been made a party to any claim, action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she, his or her testator or intestate is or was a Trustee, officer, committee member or employee of Lafayette College, whether or not then in office, and his or her executor, administrator, and heirs shall be indemnified by the College against all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him or her in connection with or arising out of such claim, action, suit or proceeding or in connection with or arising out of any appeal therein (such expenses to include the cost of reasonable settlements made with a view to curtailment of costs of litigation). No person shall have the right to reimbursement, however, in relation to matters as to which he or she has been adjudged liable to the College if he or she was derelict in the performance of his or her duty as Trustee, officer, committee member or employee by reason of willful misconduct, bad faith or reckless disregard of the duties of his or her office or employment. Such right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other right or rights to which such Trustee, officer, committee member or employee may be entitled as a matter of law.

SECTION 56. To the extent that the defense of the Trustee, officer, committee member or employee is not otherwise provided by insurance coverage, the Board of Trustees shall make provision to provide for such a defense. Such policy or policies may include provisions for the direct indemnification of directors, officers, committee members or other persons, for expenses of a kind not subject to indemnification hereunder, provided premiums on such a combined policy are, in the judgment of the Board, fairly allocated between the College and the insured persons.

SECTION 59. A trustee shall not be personally liable as a trustee for monetary damages, for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, unless the trustee has breached or failed to perform the duties of his or her office under Section 8363 of Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, and the breach or failure to perform such duties constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. This section shall not apply to the responsibility or liability of a trustee pursuant to any criminal statute, or the liability of a trustee for the payment of taxes pursuant to local, State or Federal law, nor shall this section apply to any actions filed prior to the date of the amendment adding this section to the Statutes, nor to any breach or performance of duty or any failure of performance of duty by a trustee prior to such date. He or she shall recommend to the Board or to the Board's Committee on Educational Policy candidates for appointment as members of the Faculty, and shall recommend to the Board, after such consultation as he or she deems appropriate with officers and committees of the Board, candidates for appointment as members of the administrative staff. He or she shall have the general oversight and direction of the instruction, discipline, extracurricular interests and management of the College. He or she shall be the representative of the Board and administer the laws of the College. In all matters not committed to the Faculty, he or she shall be responsible to the Board.

SECTION 61. He or she shall preside at the public exercises of the College, shall announce and confer degrees authorized by the Board and, unless some other person shall be officially designated by the Board or by the President, shall be the official representative of the College on all public occasions at home and at other places at which the College is invited to be personally represented.

SECTION 62. He or she shall preside at the stated meetings of the Faculty and have power to call the Faculty together whenever he or she deems it necessary or upon the request of five Professors. He or she shall publish and carry into effect the proper decisions of the Faculty, except when that duty is especially assigned to another. He or she shall lay before the Faculty such matters as he or she deems necessary for their attention, and may at any time take a vote upon any proposition submitted to the Faculty by him or her, and may call for the ayes and nays. He or she shall be entitled to serve as ex officio member of all Faculty committees, except as otherwise provided in the Faculty Handbook and approved by the Board of Trustees.

SECTION 63. When in his or her judgment immediate action is required in the area of Faculty responsibility, he or she may decide any question which may arise and his or her decision shall be regarded as the decision of the Faculty unless revised at its next meeting at which the President is present, by a majority vote of the members of the Faculty.

At his/her discretion, the President may hear appeals not covered by established appeal or grievance procedures.

CHAPTER III - THE FACULTY

ARTICLE I - OFFICERS OF INSTRUCTION

SECTION 70. Officers of instruction shall be classified and ranked according to the following titles: (1) Professors, (2) Associate Professors, (3) Assistant Professors, (4) Instructors, (5) Lecturers, (6) Associates and Assistants.

- A. Appointment. The terms of all appointments to the Lafayette College Faculty shall be in writing.
- B. Tenure. Tenure as described in the following paragraphs is defined as continuity of service, the institution having relinquished the freedom it normally possesses to terminate appointment, except for cause and subject to provision of the College with respect to retirement.
1. The initial appointment of Professors to the Lafayette College Faculty may be with tenure or for a probationary period not to exceed three years. This probationary period may be extended if the candidate uses the parental option or the catastrophe option outlined in the Faculty Handbook. The probationary period shall be followed by appointment with tenure or termination of employment.
 2. The initial appointment of Associate Professors to the Lafayette College Faculty may be with tenure or for term appointments not exceeding five years in total. This five-year probationary period may be extended if the candidate uses the parental option or the catastrophe option outlined in the Faculty Handbook. The probationary period shall be followed by appointment with tenure or termination of employment.
 3. Assistant Professors shall not have tenure except under unusual circumstances. The provisional period is seven years of full-time service with the rank of instructor or above at Lafayette College. However, a maximum of two years teaching in the rank of Assistant Professor or above at other institutions of higher learning will be counted toward the seven-year period. The provisional period for Assistant Professors shall be followed by appointment with tenure or by termination of employment.
 4. Instructors, Lecturers, Associates and Assistants shall not have tenure. They are appointed on an annual or shorter basis. Their total period of employment shall normally not exceed five years.
 5. Notification about Tenure Status. For those not on tenure a decision must be reached by September 1 of the last probationary year as to whether or not tenure will be granted, and the individual must be notified of this decision. In no case, however, will tenure be granted by default. It is the responsibility of the individual concerned to notify his or her Department Head of a failure to receive written notification with regard to his or her continued employment.

6. Notification about Decision not to Reappoint. If it is decided not to recommend a Faculty member for reappointment upon expiration of his or her current term, the Department Head, the Provost or the President notifies him or her in writing at the earliest opportunity. Notice is given (1) no later than March 1 if an appointment is to be terminated after one year of service, (2) no later than December 15 of the second year if an appointment is to be terminated after two years of service, and (3) no later than September 1 of the terminal year if the appointment is to be terminated after three or more years of service.
 7. Notification about Intent to Resign. A Faculty member may terminate his or her appointment effective at the end of academic year provided that he or she gives notice in writing at the earliest opportunity, but not later than May 15. The Faculty member may request a waiver of this requirement of notice in case of hardship or in a situation where he or she would otherwise be denied substantial professional advancement or other opportunity.
- C. Termination of a Tenured Member of the Faculty. Termination of a tenured member of the Faculty may be effected by the institution only for adequate cause pursuant to the procedures approved by the Board of Trustees and set forth in the relevant appendices of the Faculty Handbook.

SECTION 71. The yearly salary assigned to each officer of instruction who shall be appointed, or who shall return from leave of absence, after June 30, 1945, shall begin with July 1 and be paid in monthly installments. In case of removal by the Board for cause, the College shall not be liable for salary beyond the salary earned through the month in which the removal occurs.

SECTION 72. All officers of instruction are expected to be present for duty throughout the academic year. Applications for leave of absence of not more than seven days shall be made to the Provost or the President; for more than seven days to the Board or its Executive Committee through the Provost or the President. An officer of instruction, in accepting an appointment from the College, thereby contracts to conform to all regulations adopted by the Faculty and approved by the Board.

SECTION 73. Officers of instruction who shall have received appointments as heads of departments shall, before July 1 of each year, furnish such report of the work in his or her department as may be requested by the President.

SECTION 74. It shall be the duty of each officer of instruction to bear an active part in the immediate government of the College and to discharge the particular duties of the chair or rank which he or she occupies in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty and the Board. Each officer of instruction is enjoined to maintain an attitude of loyalty to the fundamental principles and the government of the College, to bear a share of the general work of this institution, to attend the public exercises and to render such exceptional services as may be assigned to him or her by the Faculty or the Board. The welfare and government of the students are especially commended to the officers of instruction as individuals and to the Faculty as a body. The President of the College and the Faculty shall have supervisory authority over the students and over matters affecting the general welfare of the student body and shall do all that is necessary in meeting this responsibility in ways consistent with the Charter, Statutes, and policies of the Board. Each officer of instruction is required to take part in the discipline of the College, to report delinquencies and violations of the rules and regulations of the College and is urged to promote, by precept and example, honesty, integrity, and commitment to the high purposes of the College.

SECTION 75. No officer of instruction shall, without the express permission of the Board, engage in any pursuit or occupation, with or without compensation, which shall interfere with the faithful discharge of his or her duties as a teacher, or with his or her punctual attendance upon the meetings of the Faculty and the public exercises of the College, or with such miscellaneous duties as are involved in his or her relations to the students as an officer of instruction.

ARTICLE II - THE FACULTY

SECTION 90. The Faculty shall consist of the President, Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, Instructors, and such other Officers as the Board or the Faculty may assign seats therein.

SECTION 91. Subject to the approval of the Board, the Faculty shall determine the courses of study, with the requirements for admission thereto, arrange the order of studies, the time to be devoted to each subject and appoint the hours of recitation, lectures and other College exercises. They shall examine applicants for admission, judge their qualifications, assign their exercises and, at such times as they may appoint, determine their promotion to higher standing, and at the termination of their course recommend such as they deem worthy to the Board for appropriate degrees.

SECTION 92. The Faculty shall make such rules for its organization and conduct of business as it may deem best, provided they are not inconsistent with the Charter, Statutes, and policies of the Board. It shall be the duty of every member of the Faculty to attend the stated meetings unless formally excused from attendance. Fifty percent plus one of the members of the Faculty entitled to vote at Faculty meetings shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No change in the policy of the College in respect to the requirements for admission, the course of study, the conditions of graduation or the religious exercises shall be made without the concurrence of the President, unless the proposed changes shall be adopted at two stated meetings of the Faculty by a majority vote of the Faculty members entitled to vote. In the absence of the President, the Provost shall preside at Faculty meetings; and in the absence of the Provost, a Professor appointed by the President of the College, or, if this is impossible, then a Professor appointed by the Provost.

SECTION 93. The President and Faculty shall publish periodically such catalogs and other publications as they deem appropriate which may contain the names of the officers and students, the courses of study, the requirements for admission, the College charges, the annual calendar and/or such other information as they see fit. They shall also make such arrangements for the keeping of the records, the making of reports and the carrying on of other College business related to the educational program as may be necessary and proper.

SECTION 94. The Faculty shall appoint, with the concurrence of the President, a Clerk who shall keep a record of the minutes of the Faculty and such other records as the Faculty shall determine and perform such other duties appropriate to the office as the Faculty shall from time to time designate and appoint; the Clerk shall be an active member of the Faculty and shall receive such salary for his or her services as the Board shall provide.

SECTION 95. The Faculty may organize such councils and committees as it may deem wise and delegate to such councils or to standing committees such part of the powers committed to the Faculty by the Board as the Faculty and the President may determine.

SECTION 111. Recognizing that basic student freedoms require attention also to student responsibility and conduct, the Board shall enact from time to time such basic policy statements governing the rights, responsibilities and conduct of students as the Board deems appropriate, and otherwise shall delegate to the President and the Faculty, on a continuing basis the responsibility for supervising student affairs.

SECTION 112. The student body may establish for itself a government which is representative of at least all full-time students and is responsible to the Faculty and thereafter to the President. With the approval of the Board, the President and Faculty may delegate to the Student Government a share of the authority and responsibility for matters related to the general welfare of students. The formal governance structure of the College requires that students, acting through their Student Government representatives, should petition the Faculty or the President of the College, as appropriate to the subject, on matters related to the general welfare of students or of the College generally and which, in the opinion of Student Government, should receive attention by the Faculty, the Administration, or the Board. Similarly, in matters affecting the general welfare of the College community, and specifically of the student body, the Board, Administration and Faculty, as they deem appropriate, shall endeavor to seek the counsel and guidance of student representatives.

CHAPTER VI - DEGREES

SECTION 120. The Board shall authorize the awarding of such honorary degrees and Bachelor's degrees in course as the Board from time to time shall determine. In exceptional circumstances the Board may also authorize the awarding of such Master's degrees in course as the Board may determine.

SECTION 121. The President of the College is authorized to confer at the annual Commencement or at such other times as the Board may determine, appropriate degrees in course on all candidates who shall be certified by the Clerk of the Faculty as having completed the requirements for the respective degrees and approved by the Board.
